A Day aboard Cetewayo

Cetewayo is a classic yacht with a colourful racing history. She is built for exhilarating yet comfortable sailing, which allows us to tailor our charters to suit our guests.

We are delighted to teach those interested in learning how to sail; pamper those who prefer to relax and, for the veteran sailor, there is a chance to maximize boat speed by raising the distinctive scarlet “Zulu” spinnaker and allowing Cetewayo to demonstrate her true racing credentials.

At 50ft long, there is ample space onboard to accommodate guests both on and below decks. Lunch, chosen from a selection of menu options tailored to your individual requirements, is served from the table either on deck or in the saloon, which both comfortably seats six guests.

Cetewayo was originally built in 1955 and has been painstakingly refurbished over the last 33 years to restore her to her original glory, yet with a few ‘subtle’ modern additions. Every winter Cetewayo undergoes a major refit, to upgrade her racing competitiveness and comfort. This has included a new mast and rig that will provide considerably more power in the light and medium wind conditions and increase her IRC racing rate. She is a superb example of a truly beautiful yacht that is ‘uber’ competitive. Whilst providing an exciting day out for the less experienced sailor.

The Solent has an array of options for guests to explore, from idyllic bird sanctuaries to bustling towns, from exhilarating yacht racing to swimming in a beautiful bay.

Whatever you choose to do, our aim is to make your day one to remember.

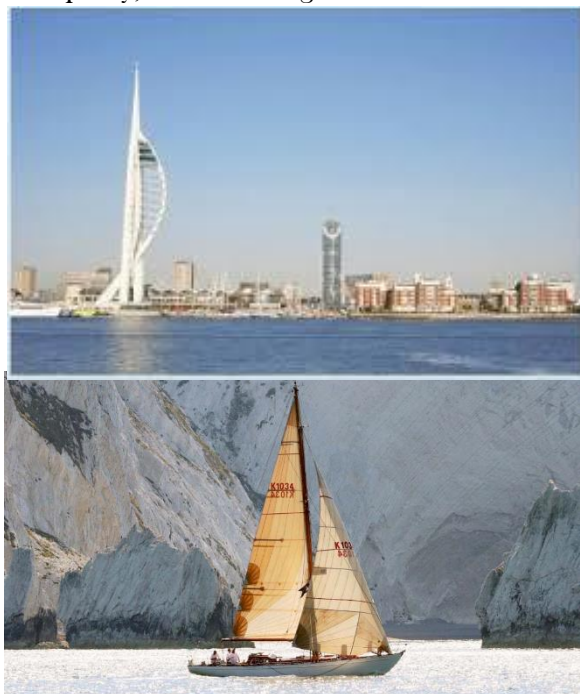

The Solent: Cruising and Racing in the Area

The Solent provides a beautiful, sheltered sailing area, between the Isle of Wight and the Hampshire shores of Southern England. Which, for the last century, has been internationally recognized as a sailing and yacht racing mecca.

Cetewayo is based in Hamble Le Rice, only 90 minutes via car or train from central London. When leaving the River Hamble, destinations to the south and east include the famous harbor's of Cowes and Yarmouth on the Isle of Wight, Portsmouth, with the ensemble of docked Royal Naval ships and the Gun Wharf Quay marina development, complete with the new Millenium Tower.

tranquility, then cruising the waters of the wild

In contrast, if you long for a day of peace and bird sanctuary of Newtown Creek, laying anchor in Osborne Bay and enjoying a delicious lunch onboard overlooking the splendid stately home of Queen Victoria, or experiencing a bygone era while traveling up the Beaulieu River to the "Grand Master Builders" site, all will leave you feeling completely relaxed.

The Solent is host to many annual yachting events, such as the "Round the Island Race", where you can see a mass of colour, as more than 1200 colourful spinnakers are hoisted, and the famous "Cowes Week", where the Solent is filled with racing yachts and Cowes comes alive with boats of all sizes and their crews.

For those worried about the English weather, the Solent resides in its own micro-climate, which is often far more forgiving than that experienced only a few miles inland. The southern tip of the Isle of Wight is, in fact, the sunniest spot in England.

The Solent offers the perfect sailing location for the perfect sailing day.

The Schedule

The itinerary is flexible and can be tailored to suit guest's individual requirements. A typical day is often as follows:

Itinerary:

- ❖ 10:00 Meet onboard for a continental breakfast
- ❖ 10:15 Briefing of the day and safety procedures
- ❖ 10:30 Depart and sail around the Solent
- ❖ 13:00 Anchor/moor in a marina and enjoy lunch
- ❖ 14:30 Weigh anchor and sail back along the Solent to the River Hamble
- ❖ 17:00 Return to mooring, guests depart

What to bring:

- ❖ Wet weather gear and lifejackets are supplied leaving you feeling completely relaxed.
- ❖ Guests may wish to bring a swimming costume and a towel. However, warm clothing is imperative even if the forecast is for fine weather.
- ❖ No black or leather soled shoes, preferably only deck shoes (bring a spare pair for the end of the day)
- ❖ Warm jumper and jacket
- ❖ Sun block, sunglasses and a hat

General

- ❖ Cetewayo is sailed by an expert crew, but we encourage participation from guests, depending on your enthusiasm!
- ❖ Where the charter is for more than one day, we can arrange to take guests on a more extensive tour, with overnight accommodation arranged ashore at boutique hotels if required, at extra cost.
- ❖ All guests are responsible for their own medical and accident insurance.
- ❖ Please advise of any relevant medical conditions that you may have.

Your Skipper and The Option Of A Global Forecaster Briefing

David Murrin has been the owner and skipper of Cetewayo for 33 years. He has a life times experience of cruising and racing as sailing is his passion. As such he looks forward to sharing his world with you whilst you aboard.

David Murrin is also the CEO of Global Forecaster and will be offering a series of geopolitical briefings aboard Cetewayo over the duration of a day, aimed at senior managers and officers in businesses and politics. The day is designed to highlight key political and economic risks that are critical for the survival of many businesses and that will need to be navigated in the years ahead

David has over 30 years of experience in the directional trading, PE investment and entrepreneurship. He originally trained as a geophysicist with an Honours Degree in Geophysics from Exeter University, before joining a global seismic exploration company and being posted to Papua New Guinea. From 1984 to 1987, he lived and worked with local tribes in the Sepic River Basin, an experience which inspired him to begin formulating his theories on collective emotional behavioral patterns detailed on his site www.davidmurrin.co.uk

David speaks widely on geopolitics and financial markets, appearing frequently as a keynote speaker at international conferences and on television. He is also a keen military historian of long standing. This personal passion has fueled years of research and has been instrumental in helping him to construct a macro view of geopolitics in the coming decades – from which his book 'Breaking the Code of History' takes its themes. He is also the author of Lions Led By Lions, The Never Never Defense Review and Red Lightening.
